LIFE-CHANGING RESEARCH

Monash research strives to make a positive difference in the world.

Even before we became the global university we are today, our researchers looked beyond traditional boundaries, discovering ways of approaching the fields in which they worked. It's why a Monash education is so respected around the world. Things that we now take for granted wouldn't exist without the initial work of Monash researchers.

Today, our ambition and optimism are stronger than ever. We have a clear vision of what we want our research to achieve and how we'll help our researchers make it happen.

The new Woodside Building for Technology and Design provides a world-class learning environment with the latest dynamic and interactive learning spaces. Students and researchers can embrace innovation, design and cutting-edge technology to develop new solutions in sustainable energy technology.

eBikes pedal up on safety with EEG technology

As more cyclists take to the streets, the risk of accidents also increases. Research from Monash University, IBM Research – Australia and the University of Southampton, have developed an eBike prototype that has the ability to “read” a cyclist’s mind and respond to a potentially dangerous situation, providing a much safer and enjoyable ride.

Professor Florian ‘Floyd’ Mueller, Director of the Exertion Games Lab in the Faculty of Information Technology at Monash University and co-creator of this technology, sees this ground-breaking research as an opportunity to further human-computer interaction experiences in real-time, where the rider and the eBike ‘fuse’ together to support each other.

Breakthroughs in treating Lupus

Lupus is a form of rheumatic disease – autoimmune and inflammatory diseases that cause the immune system to attack your joints, muscles, bones and organs. However, while there have been great inroads in the treatment of some rheumatic diseases, such as rheumatoid arthritis, there’s been little progress for lupus.

Momentum towards breaking the impasse on new treatments for lupus has been building, and efforts at Monash have made major contributions to both the basic science and clinical measurement obstacles.

As a result of Monash’s world-class standing in the field, we’ve been party to the first positive phase 3 trial for a lupus drug in 10 years, and pivotal in the FDA approval granted in August 2021.

When to send an ambulance

Triple-0 calls can be intense conversations. The caller is often stressed and unsure about what they’re witnessing. And it can be difficult for the triple-0 operator to collect and sort through all of the key information. This can sometimes cause delays in making the decision to send an ambulance.

AI can help speed things up. Professor Ann Nicholson is working with Monash IT’s Associate Professor Burak Turhan to develop AI technology to improve response times to cardiac arrest. According to Ambulance Victoria, the development of such a system could help save up to 185 lives per year.

Monash researcher named Australian Young Water Professional of the Year

Dr Paul Satur, from the Monash Sustainable Development Institute, has worked to progress the water sector beyond best-practice goals. His passion and focus lie in helping remote, local communities, both in Australia and around the world, to develop the knowledge, tools and influence to ensure access to clean, drinking water.

THE CHOICE IS YOURS

Image: Caulfield Library, located at our Caulfield campus.

We know that when, where, how and what you study is critical to progressing your career, skills and knowledge.

You might be a professional looking to gain expert knowledge in your current field, or you might be looking for a career change. Or maybe you want to complement your existing knowledge and experience by tackling study in a new discipline so that you develop a competitive edge in your career.

We offer a comprehensive graduate coursework portfolio that includes graduate certificates, graduate diplomas and master's programs. Our range of graduate course options allows you to choose the qualification level and course duration that suits your needs.

Depending on which path you take, you may be eligible for credit for your prior qualifications and/or experience. This could reduce the duration of your course and lower the overall cost.

Graduate certificates

These are our six-month courses, and provide a way to broaden your knowledge base within a shorter period of time. They can give you a sense of what's involved with graduate coursework studies.

Completing your graduate certificate not only provides you with a qualification, it can also create an opportunity for you to pursue further studies in either a graduate diploma or a master's degree, and can shorten your study time should credit be available.

Graduate diplomas

Through our one-year graduate diploma courses, you could develop a broader understanding in your chosen area of study. Completion of a graduate diploma can also provide a pathway to further studies at a master's or doctorate level. If you decide to pursue further studies in your chosen field, you may be eligible for credit which would reduce the overall duration.

Master's by coursework

We offer a broad portfolio of master's by coursework programs, with options available in each of our faculties. These master's courses can run from two to four years, and you may receive credit for prior studies and/or experience which would allow you to complete your studies in a shorter time.

Our master's courses provide opportunities for professionals to further develop specialist knowledge in their chosen field, or for individuals to change their career direction entirely and undertake study in a new discipline.

You can see the full list of our graduate coursework offering on pages 12-13.

Whatever your ambition, Monash can help you get there.

WORK WHILE YOU STUDY

From day one, a Monash education sets you on the path to future career success.

WORK-INTEGRATED LEARNING

Our programs and platforms offer work-integrated learning experiences and engagement with industry. You'll develop an enterprising mindset, hone your employability skills and gain a competitive edge in the graduate employment market.

Incorporate professional experience into your studies through clinical placements, fieldwork, study tours, placements, or internships. Each of our ten faculties offer work-integrated learning options. We've listed just a few.

IT and Engineering

Both our IT and Engineering faculties have specific work-integrated learning opportunities throughout their graduate offering.

Monash Law School

Monash Law offers a guaranteed clinical education experience for all students who wish to incorporate a practical component credited towards their Monash Law degree.

I undertook a clinical placement with Tradelab, a Geneva based non-profit organisation that assists developing countries with trade-related legal matters.

This internship was valuable as it gave me an opportunity to gain practical working experience and at the same time make a meaningful contribution to the future of sustainable infrastructure development.”

PRATIK AMBANI

Master of Laws (Juris Doctor), 2019

I chose Monash specifically, because unlike similar programs in other universities, this program offered internship opportunities where we learn to apply our knowledge and skills in a real-life settings.

My internship with Janssen enabled me to seek guidance from people with years and years of experience within the pharmaceutical industry. Janssen arranged an intern engagement program where I had the opportunity to talk with people from different parts of the company each week. They also involved me in meetings where I could observe how different roles work together in a cross-functional team. I gained an understanding of how much science is involved and how it fits within a pharmaceutical company. This experience opened my eyes to a wide range of roles where science is highly utilised.”
