

Employee Consent Information

All employees must read this form prior to their upcoming hearing test.

On the day you will be required to sign a consent sheet as part of legislative requirements that you have been provided this information.

What is the Screening Hearing Test

Australian Standard AS/NZS 1269.4:2014 requires all industries producing high levels of noise to periodically measure their employees hearing levels. This is because excessive noise exposure can cause hearing loss.

The purpose of this test is to purely investigate if employees hearing is being affected by their workplace, this is not a diagnostic assessment.

Audiometric testing (Screening Hearing Test) of individual employees will be carried out by a fully trained Screening Audiometrist.

Once you have taken part in the Screening Hearing Test

Results of the assessment will be provided through an individual employee letter explaining the outcome of your test. Your employer will also receive a report listing your results.

All Audiometric Testing and associated reporting is performed in accordance with the requirements of the Australian/New Zealand Standard AS/NZS1269.4:2014 Occupational Noise Management, Part 4: Auditory Assessment.

Please refer to your relevant manager or OHS co-ordinator if you have any queries regarding this matter BEFORE the scheduled hearing test date.
