POSITION PURPOSE

The Peer Assisted Study Sessions (PASS) program is an academic mentoring program which targets traditionally challenging academic 1st Year units. PASS provides regularly scheduled, out-of-class, peer-facilitated study sessions for 1st Year students requiring additional assistance with the subject. The PASS sessions are facilitated by PASS Leaders, who are students that have previously and successfully completed the targeted course.

Reporting Line: The position reports to Peer Mentoring Program Coordinator

Supervisory Responsibilities: Not applicable

Financial delegation and/or budget responsibilities: Not applicable

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Plan and facilitate weekly study support sessions for groups of 1st year students in order to help them:

- Adjust to academic life at university
- Acquire a clear view of course direction and expectations
- Improve their learning and study skills to meet the requirements of the target unit and course
- Enhance their understanding of the subject matter through collaborative group discussions
- Prepare better for assignments and examinations
- In cooperation with the Unit Coordinator and other lecturers in the target unit, advertise the PASS sessions at the beginning of semester and intermittently throughout the semester
- Run 2 or 3 weekly PASS sessions for the target unit during the semester
- Prepare written session plans for all PASS sessions based around interactive small group learning activities that facilitate active learning
- Provide appropriate advice on independent learning, good study habits and other learning techniques to the 1st year students
- Attend new leader training during Orientation week
